GOOD NIGHT! AFTER PARTY AT THE BAR!

In 2004 we called upon the community to come to us and tell the real news stories that the other newspapers refused to tell. Ten Years Later ... LOOK WHAT YOU HAVE ACHIEVED!!

OUR VOICE IS YOUR VOICE: The Valley Patriot welcomes letters to the editor on any topic. We also welcome column/article submissions from elected officials, neighborhood associations, community organizers and news makers. Our mission is to give readers the unique opportunity to receive important information from those who are driving important public issues without the "creative editing" policy employed by most newspapers. Submissions from guest columnists/writers in The Valley Patriot are published without the filtered agenda of an editorial board. If you would like to write a column, letter or article for The Valley Patriot, please e-mail us at: ValleyPatriot@aol.com

VALLEY PATRIOT AWARDS

VALLEY PATRIOT GOOD WILL AMBASSADOR AWARD

Tonight we honor two people who have made incredible contributions to the Valley Patriot above and beyond what is expected of anyone. Both of these individuals have gone out on their own, with no direction from The Valley Patriot, and scored big stories, photos, interviews or news tips, and/or represented the newspaper in an outstanding way.

VALLEY PATRIOT EDITORS CHOICE AWARD

The Valley Patriot has enjoyed publishing thousands of submissions by our readers since 2004. So many great columns, letters and news stories have graced our pages from guest contributors The Valley Patriot's ten year success story is a testament to you, our readers. This year we honor two writers who have taken the high road in public discourse while also taking very bold stands on some of the most important issues that shape our lives.

Last Year's Winners: Joe D'Amore and Lonnie Brennan.

VALLEY PATRIOT HERO VETERAN AWARD

Because honoring Veterans is so much a part of what we do at The Valley Patriot, tonight we honor two people who themselves honor our hero service men and women here at home. Honoring our veterans and recognizing their incredible sacrifices is one of the most important things we do at The Valley Patriot. Tonight we honor two veterans who not only served their country overseas but continued to serve their country when they came home. Whether it is public service, volunteering in the community or helping other veterans here at home, tonight's recipients are men who embody what service and sacrifice are all about. Last Year's Winners: David Swarbrick, John Lenottee

VALLEY PATRIOT PRESIDENTS AWARD

Tonight we honor two people with our Valley Patriot President's Award. They were personally chosen by Valley Patriot President Tom Duggan for their unique contribution they make to the newspaper every month. Despite what our detractors say about us, our readers know that we are a newspaper that values free speech and diversity of opinion above all else. This award is normally reserved for someone who goes above and beyond the call of duty to help in the operations of the newspaper, but we all know that Christine Morabito and Dan Selenius would win this every year with that definition so we re-purposed the award to honor those who contribute material that stands out in either quality or the impact it has on our readers. Last Year's Winners: Christine Morabito, Dan Selenius

*VALLEY PATRIOT 1ST AMENDMENT PUBLIC SERVICE AWARD

This year we start a new tradition. This award is given to individuals who show with their actions that they value the 1st Amendment to the Constitution. Winner of this award have made a significant difference in holding public officials accountable, fought for transparency in government and gone above and beyond the call of duty to defend and protect our right of free speech, a free press, freedom of religion and/or being a whistle-blower. They are or have taken ACTION, bold action to make sure the public is more informed about what their government leaders and representatives are up to. Without individuals like this on the front lines in the war against a free speech and a free press our freedoms would be lost.

OFFICER TOM DUGGAN SR. LAW ENFORCEMENT AWARD

On March 16, 1990, Lawrence Police Officer Tom Duggan Sr. lost his life in the line of duty. He was a man who loved being a police officer and lived his life responding to cries for help in the community. While he worked on many major cases and high profile crimes, he always said that it was the day to day work he did on and off duty to help people in small ways that really made his job worth doing.

This year we honor his service and sacrifice with "The Valley Patriot, Officer Tom Duggan Sr., Law Enforcement Award." The award is given to members of public safety (police or fire) and/or 1 civilians who honors the service and personal sacrifice police officers and firefighters make every day. Officer Duggan believed that those little extra things we do in life to help others ... make the biggest differences in people's lives at the end of the day. He also believed those little extra things helped us become better people, and make the world around us a better place.

Last Year's Winners: Scott Emerson, Wheelabrator and Methuen Police Officer Dan O'Connell

Our First North Andover High Scholarship Recipient

From 2005-2008 The Valley Patriot sponsored an after school journalism program at the Thomson Elementary School in North Andover to teach young students how to publish their school newspaper, "Tiger Times" which became "Tiger Prints."

4th and 5th grade students at Thomson learned the difference between a column and a news story, and wrote and edited their own publication.

Victoria Deshaies was one of our "Tiger Prints" kid reporters and is now graduating from North Andover High School. She has been accepted at Hofstra, University of Rhode Island, Sacred Heart University and University of Vermont. Good luck at college!

SUPPORT HB 2846 AND BRING PUBLIC ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE STATE'S PUBLIC RECORDS LAW

When Lawrence Mayor William Lantigua refused to turn over public documents to The Valley Patriot we took him to court. Two judges orders and two years later Lantigua was never held accountable for breaking the law. (UPDATE: Mayor Rivera has pledged to release them to the Valley Patriot). Because of the debacle, however, State Senator Kathleen O'Connor Ives submitted a bill on behalf of The Valley Patriot which would fine keepers of public records $100 a day for each day they do not release documents in the allotted time. If passed, this bill would also reimburse anyone who has to take a public entity to court for refusing to turn over public records within ten days. CALL YOUR LEGISLATOR and tell them to support HB2846. Tell them public records belong to the public and those who conceal them must be held accountable!

The Menorah Lighting That Almost Wasn't

Two years ago when our publisher found out that the annual lighting of the Grand Menorah was not going to take place in North Andover for lack of sponsors, he contacted Chabad Lubavitch Jewish Center of Merrimack Valley and offered to help keep the local tradition going. For the last two years the Valley Patriot has sponsored the Grand Menorah Lighing on North Andover Common. Without our advertisers and our BASH sponsors the North Andover Common would have been dark during Chanukah. THANK YOU ALL!

School Committee Bills Taxpayers for Fine Dining

Tom Duggan

For the past three years members of the Lawrence School Committee have been billing the taxpayers for dining at the city's most expensive restaurant One Mill Street.

Then School Committee members Noah Shuman, Pedro Arce, Suzanne Pesciello, Nancy Kennedy and current member George Gonzalez all dined with Superintendent Wilfredo Laboy and his staff after school board meetings running up tabs worth over $1,200.00.

Documents obtained by The Valley Patriot show that state taxpayers treated members of the Lawrence School Committee to more than a dozen expensive meals between 2001-2003.

Meals received by the Lawrence School Board members helped themselves to veal, sirloin steaks, calamari, pork chops, duck, steak salad, garlic shrimp, mussels, scallops, scallop chicken, assorted appetizers and other various menu items. The meals were then billed to the city of Lawrence which receives 100% of it's funding from the state and federal government.

While Superintendent Laboy's $14,000 a year contract does not include a meal allowance, he says that some of his expenses are reimbursable. "I don't have a meal allowance, but it is accepted

....the Ethics Commission should be informed about this. They should pay back every penny with interest and issue a written apology to the school children and the citizens of Lawrence."

practice for me to be reimbursed for certain expenses as long as they are reasonable and sensible," he said.

School Committee members, on the other hand, do not have that luxury. According to the School Committee policy (B-18) "School Committee members receive compensation for their services. However, upon signing vouchers and supporting bills for expenses incurred in carrying out specific services previously authorized by the Committee, Committee members will be reimbursed for direct district funds." This never took place regarding meal receipts from One Mill Street.

Instead, some School Committee members took advantage of their position as

Andover's Marasco Campaigns for Reform

Valley Patriot Staff

Boston - State Rep. Candidate Maria Marasco (R-Andover) received a campaign boost from Lt. Governor Kerry Healey in Boston last week at her first fund raising event and preparation for her formal campaign against incumbent 18th Essex County Representative. The district spans six communities, including her hometown of Andover, North Andover, Boxford, Haverhill, Methuen and Georgetown. The seat is currently held by first term incumbent Barbara L'Helan (D-Andover).

"Maria is exactly the right kind of person who will best represent her district," said Lt. Governor Healey. "She has the right credentials to help represent our community in an effective way," she said. Marasco supports the governor's efforts to cut waste and mismanagement in state government.

"I will stand by the Governor and Lt. Governor to make responsible reforms. As
